

PERINATAL FORUM

Perinatal Pathology

Wednesday 24 November 2004

Dr Phil Cox and his team from the regional perinatal pathology service at Birmingham Women's Hospital (BWH) will present an update on the perinatal post-mortem, the new national consent form, and some new research on the role of postmortem in determining the cause of stillbirth. Dr Sanjeev Deshpande will discuss reasons for poor uptake of neonatal postmortem

Programme

From 15:30 Coffee / Tea

- 16:00 The Perinatal post-mortem: an update
Dr Nicola Ostojsic – Consultant Perinatal Pathologist, BWH
- 16:30 Getting consent and the new national form
Elaine Thorpe - Bereavement Counsellor, BWH
- 17:00 Improving neonatal post-mortem uptake
Dr Sanjeev Deshpande – Consultant Neonatologist, Shrewsbury
- 17:15 The role of placental examination
Dr Tamas Marton - Consultant Pathologist, BWH
- 17:30 Light refreshments
- 18:00 Postmortem and identification of fetal growth restriction
Dr Phil Cox - Consultant Perinatal Pathologist, BWH
- 19:15 Discussion
- 19:30 Close

BOOKING FORM
Perinatal Pathology
Perinatal Forum
Wednesday 24 November 2004

I enclose cheque for £ 20 (please make cheques payable to BBCHA)

Title _____ Name _____

Position _____ Dept _____

Unit _____

 _____ Mobile _____

Please return to: Amanda Harrison, Perinatal Institute, Crystal Court, Aston Cross, Birmingham B6 5RQ

BOOKING FORM
Perinatal Pathology
Perinatal Forum
Wednesday 24 November 2004

I enclose cheque for £ 20 (please make cheques payable to BBCHA)

Title _____ Name _____

Position _____ Dept _____

Unit _____

 _____ Mobile _____

Please return to: Amanda Harrison, Perinatal Institute, Crystal Court, Aston Cross, Birmingham B6 5RQ