6TH INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM ON INTRAPARTUM SURVEILLANCE

BIRMINGHAM, 8-10 JULY 2001

Dates and Venue

ISIS 2001 will be held in Birmingham on 8-10 July 2001, immediately preceding the 29th British Congress of O&G. The Botanical Gardens provide a visually stunning setting and are an ideal conference venue in the heart of Birmingham, within easy walking distance of the famous entertainment venues, canals, restaurants and hotels of Broad Street.

The Botanical Gardens, Birmingham

Accommodation

Special discount prices have been negotiated with three hotels in central Broad Street: Chamberlain Tower, Novotel and Hyatt Regency. Room prices range from £27.50 (shared twin) to £96. Booking forms are available online - see www.perinatal.org.uk/isis. Alternatively, please contact Reservations, Birmingham Convention and Visitor Bureau, e-mail: iccvic@bmp.org.uk Tel: +44 (0) 121 665 6116; Fax: +44 (0) 121 643 3280.

Social Program

A welcome reception will be held at the Botanical Gardens on Sunday 8 July, 6 - 8 pm. Monday evening (9 July) will see extensive feasting and revelry in a 12th century Cistercian Abbey, at a specially arranged Mediaeval Banquet.

Abstracts

Submissions are invited for poster presentations on research topics relating to intrapartum surveillance. Posters will be on display during the whole meeting, and the ISIS prize of £500 will be awarded for the best poster(s). A limited number of short communications will also be accepted for presentation. Abstracts should be no more than 300 words in length, with 12 point font, may include one figure or table, and should fit onto a single page of A4. They should reach us by 31 May 2001, preferably as an e-mail attachment in an MS-Word compatible format.
