

SPECIAL FORUM

Wednesday 29 October 2008

Perinatal Institute

Crystal Court, Aston Cross, Birmingham B6 5RQ

Safe Maternity Ultrasound Services in the West Midlands

This meeting intends to summarise the current pressures on maternity ultrasound services, and provide a forum to consider the priorities and address the challenges in the West Midlands.

It is intended for all concerned in maternity services, including commissioners, LIG leads, public health specialists and clinicians providing maternity care and ultrasound services.

From	13:00	Lunch
	13:30	Welcome and Introduction Jason Gardosi – Perinatal Institute
	13:45	Workforce and training needs – recent developments Jo McHugo – Birmingham Women’s Hospital
	14:00	Ultrasound service models for first, second and third trimester Ann Tonks – Perinatal Institute
	14:15	First trimester: remit for combined screening for Down’s syndrome Rowena Clayton – GO & Sharon Hodgkiss, Perinatal Institute
	14:30	Second trimester: remit for outflow tract assessment Mike Wyldes – Heart of England NHS Trust
	14:45	Third trimester: remit for fetal growth assessment in high risk pregnancy Mandy Williams – Perinatal Institute
	15:00	Coffee / Tea
	15:15	General discussion and way forward
	16:15	Close

Attendance is free but registration is required.

If you would like to attend, please send name, position / institution and contact details to Amanda Harrison – Perinatal Institute: amanda.harrison@pi.nhs.uk